DATE January 9, 2015

RE: Qualifications to be a City Council member

---

FACTS:

City Council member Caitlin Copple is resigning her City Council position after the City Council has selected her replacement.

ISSUE:

What qualifications are required by Montana state law to be a Montana municipal city council member?

CONCLUSION:

In order to be eligible to serve as a city council member an individual must be at least 18 years old, be a resident of the city council ward, be a qualified elector registered to vote, reside in the city council ward at least 60 days preceding the election or appointment, and be a citizen of both the United States and the state of Montana.

LEGAL DISCUSSION:

Several provisions of Montana law establish qualifications for an individual to be eligible to serve as a city council member in municipal government in Montana. Basically in order to be eligible to serve as a municipal city council member pursuant to Montana law, the person must be a qualified elector registered to vote who is at least eighteen (18) years of age, a resident of the city council ward for at least sixty (60) days and a citizen of both the United States and Montana.

Montana's Constitution Art. IV § 2 defines qualified elector.

Section 2. Qualified elector. Any citizen of the United States 18 years of age or older who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified elector unless he is serving a sentence for a felony in a penal institution or is of unsound mind, as determined by a court.

Montana municipal government law defines "elector" as meaning "a resident of the municipality qualified and registered to vote under state law." See subsection 7-1-4121 (3), MCA. Montana municipal special improvement district law defines a qualified elector as "registered electors of the municipality." Mont. Code Ann. § 7-12-4243(1)(b).

Montana's Constitution Art IV § 4 provides in its entirety:

Section 4. Eligibility for public office. Any qualified elector is eligible to any public office except as otherwise provided in this constitution. The legislature may provide additional qualifications but no person convicted of a felony shall be eligible to hold office until his final discharge from state supervision.

Mont. Code Ann. § 7-4-4104 sets forth the general qualifications for municipal office.

7-4-4104. General qualifications for municipal office. No person is eligible to any municipal office, elective or appointive:

- (1) who is not a citizen of the United States; and
- (2) who has not met the qualifications prescribed by law or by ordinance adopted by the governing body of a city or town. (Emphasis added.)

Mont. Code Ann. § 2-16-102(2) pertains to general qualifications for office.

2-16-102. Qualifications generally -- age and citizenship.

(2) A person is not eligible to hold civil office in this state who at the time of election or appointment is not 18 years of age or older and a citizen of this state. (Emphasis added.)

Mont. Code Ann. § 7-4-4401 sets forth qualifications for a city council member.

7-4-4401. Qualifications for city council member. A person is not eligible for the office of city council member unless the person is a resident for at least 60 days preceding the election to office of the ward electing the person or of an area that has been annexed by the city or town and placed in the ward. (Emphasis added.)

Elector is defined in the general provisions of Montana's election laws as "an individual qualified to vote under state law." Mont. Code Ann. § 13-1-101(10). Elector is also defined in the general provisions pertaining to municipal government as "a resident of the municipality qualified and registered to vote under state law." Mont. Code Ann. § 7-1-4121(3).

The City of Missoula Charter pertaining to eligibility provides:

5. Eligibility. Only registered voters who are residents of the City shall be eligible to hold the office of City Council member. Both candidates for the office of City Council member, and City Council members must reside in the ward they represent.

City of Missoula Charter, Article II, § 5 (1/1/1997).

CONCLUSION:

In order to be eligible to serve as a city council member an individual must be at least 18 years old, be a resident of the city council ward, be a qualified elector registered to vote, reside in the city council ward at least 60 days preceding the election or appointment, and be a citizen of both the United States and the state of Montana.
